

KALDEWEI

SHOWER COUTURE

Xetis – state-of-the-art shower.

VISIONARY AESTHETICS

invisible technology.

Today, luxury living means blending together the living area and bathroom. This includes a perfectly integrated shower surface as the visible expression of contemporary comfort. With the launch of XETIS, Kaldewei underlines its role as pioneer and style icon in bathroom culture.

UNCOMPROMISING DESIGN

a new experience.

Kaldewei is setting new standards in modern bathroom architecture with the XETIS system solution. The new enamelled shower surface with its integrated wall outlet blends perfectly with the bathroom floor. There is no waste cover to interrupt the homogenous shower surface in Kaldewei steel enamel 3.5 mm. With 13 different dimensions, the new shower surface XETIS blends easily with any floor. The hidden wall outlet sets new standards in the bathroom architecture. The design and engineering specialists from Kaldewei have created an easy-to-install system solution that, for the first time ever, offers all the components in a single installation set. The interplay of the excellent material properties of Kaldewei steel enamel 3.5 mm and the system components of the installation packages makes the XETIS a mature product solution.

even in matt.

The unique matt enamel finish of the Coordinated Colours Collection by Kaldewei sets new standards in bathroom design. The surface of wall and floor blend with the exclusive steel enamel of the XETIS shower surface to create a harmonious balance. Making daily life more comfortable, and enhancing the value of the home. XETIS - a highlight in sensuousness and aesthetics.

extremely safe.

Anti-slip enamel finishes in the matching colours are the perfect combination of safety and aesthetics. The finely textured anti-slip surface made from a mixture of quartz and sand is burnt hard into the Kaldewei steel enamel 3.5 mm, and provides a very high level of safety when showering.
